THE OBSERVER

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING

wedding

announcements

1. Wedding announcements are published in Step Saver/The Observer on Thursdays.
2. Announcements will not be published if more than one year after the ceremony.
3. If the announcement includes a photograph, we prefer a sharp close-up no smaller than wallet size. Photo should be of professional quality, black-and-white or color print. Laser printed photos are not acceptable. Digital photos are accepted. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope so Step Saver/ The Observer can return your photo. Place a label with your name and address on the back of your photograph. We will do everything possible to return your photo after the publishing date.
4. ALL ANNOUNCEMENTS REQUIRE A COMPLETED AUTHORIZATION FORM. The form must be signed by one of the principals (bride, groom, parents) with an address and daytime telephone number.
5. Step Saver/The Observer reserves the right to refuse for publication any announcement request received after the deadline.

6. Step Saver/The Observer reserves the right to revise, edit or reject any or all copy and photographs that do not meet our quality standards.

7. All announcements should be neatly printed or typed on Step Saver/The Observer forms provided.
